

Art Guides

In LA for Frieze Week? Here Is Our Guide to 33 Inspiring Gallery Shows to See Beyond the Fairs

See what LA galleries from Gagosian to Honor Fraser are showing across the city.

Sarah Cascone, February 10, 2020

Gisela Colon, Untitled (15 Foot Parabolic Monolith Iridium), 2019. Photo courtesy of Gavlak Gallery, Los Angeles.

As the art world turns its eyes to the West Coast for the second edition of Frieze Los Angeles—held at Paramount Pictures Studios, February 13–16—make sure to save some time after the fair for these shows across the city. From household names like Anish Kapoor to red-hot up-and-comers like Nicolas Party, here are the exhibitions worth adding to your LA itinerary this week.

“Dennis Hopper: Morocco Paintings” at Parrasch Heijnen
Through March 21

One of Dennis Hopper's "Morocco Paintings." Photo courtesy of Parrasch Heijnen.

Actor and film director Dennis Hopper was also an artist and photographer; he began painting way back in the mid-1950s. The late star's first show at Parrasch Heijnen features his series of "Morocco Paintings" (1991–94), made on location when Hopper was filming in the country, merging tropes from local architecture with influences from Abstract Expressionism.

Parrasch Heijnen Gallery is located at 1326 S. Boyle Avenue, Los Angeles, California.